Recontribution of a Qualified Federal Disaster Distribution: If you received one or more distributions from an eligible retirement plan that was a Qualified Federal Disaster Distribution, then you may be able to recontribute part or all of it as a rollover contribution to an eligible retirement plan (such as a 401(a), 401(k) plan, 403(b) plan, 457(b) governmental plan). A Qualified Federal Disaster Distribution is a distribution from an eligible retirement plan to an individual because of a major disaster declared by the President under section 401 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act after December 27, 2020.

Your recontribution must be made within the three-year period beginning on the date after you received your Qualified Federal Disaster Distribution. You may recontribute the money in separate transactions, but the total amount may not be more than the amount of your Qualified Federal Disaster Distribution(s) from all qualified retirement plans that are part of the same group of companies under common control and cannot exceed $22,000 per disaster. You may be able to request a refund of any Federal income taxes that you originally paid on the taxable amount of your distribution(s) by filing IRS Form 8915 (Qualified Disaster Retirement Plan Distributions and Repayments).

If you received a distribution from a 401(k) or 403(b) plan that was originally used to purchase or construct your principal residence in a disaster area and you were unable to purchase or construct it because of the disaster, then you may recontribute it based on the Plan rules. However, your recontribution must be made within 180 days after the later of the incident date of the disaster or the date that the disaster declaration is issued.

Please contact Fidelity Investments to determine if your Plan accepts recontributions. You may use this form to recontribute your Qualified Federal Disaster Distribution to the Plan identified above but your recontribution will be subject to the Plan's rules.

You must complete and sign this form, and return it based on the instructions in section 3, along with a certified check, cashier's check or money order payable to Fidelity Investments Institutional Operations Company (FIOC).
