You’ve earned an equity award from your company.

Your award at a glance: Stock Appreciation Rights.
Congratulations on being recognized for all the work you do. Stock appreciation rights (SARs) can help you build your personal wealth and make it easier to reach your financial goals. Below are some general steps that could occur during the lifecycle of your award. Be sure to check your own plan rules for details about your specific award.

1. Receive your award and open your account (if needed).
2. Accept your award
   If it’s required by your company.
3. Your award is vested
   You’ve met all company requirements, including the waiting or “vesting” period.
4. Decide if and when to exercise your rights
   You have until the expiration date to take action.
5. Exercise your rights
   The type of SAR and exercise method used will determine whether you receive shares or cash.
6. View your shares or cash
   Log in to your account at Fidelity.com to see what you received (minus taxes).
7. Manage your account
   Hold or sell your shares and manage your cash at Fidelity.com.

Consider these smart next steps to make things easier later on.

Link your Fidelity Account® to your bank account to quickly transfer cash between them.
