

Selling Shares in Your Fidelity Account®

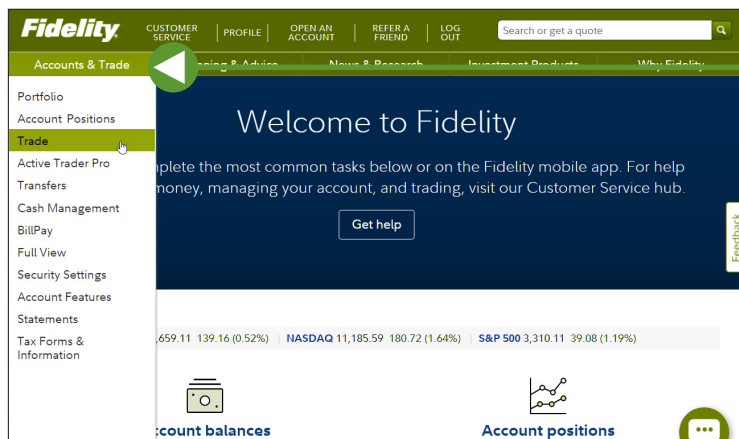

Once your shares are available in your Fidelity Account®, here's where you go to sell them. Be sure to check your employer's plan documents<sup>1</sup> to see whether you are required to hold your shares for a specified period before you can sell them.

1. Go to Fidelity.com and log in to your individual account.

OR

Log in to NetBenefits®, and on the Stock Plan Summary page, select your individual account.

2. On the top menu bar, hover over the Accounts & Trade tab. Select Trade from the drop-down menu, and then select your individual account.

3. After you make your choice, the trade ticket will appear. Follow the prompts to place your trade.

*Check your employer's plan documents for any rules that may require you to hold your stock for a specified period.

Control and restricted securities must be sold in accordance with SEC Rule 144 requirements. Additional documentation, approval, and conditions must be met prior to selling, which may limit your ability to sell at a specified time. Stock markets are volatile and can fluctuate significantly in response to company, industry, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments. Investing in stock involves risks, including the loss of principal.

System availability and response times may be subject to market conditions.

Commissions and fees will apply to trades.

You can place your brokerage orders when markets are open or closed; however, orders placed when the markets are closed are subject to market conditions existing when the markets reopen, unless trades are made during an extended-hours session. Please see Fidelity.com for details and other important information about trading and fees.
